KEELHAM Farm Shop is due to open in Skipton on Wednesday - and its owners are promising to keep it local.

In addition to sourcing suppliers from the immediate area, many companies are family owned - keeping in with Keelham's own strong family ethos.

It will be the second shop for owners, brother and sister James and Victoria Robertshaw in addition to their award-winning original one in Thornton, Bradford.

"We are building fantastic links with local suppliers here in North Yorkshire and it's great to welcome new producers to the Keelham team, as well being able to introduce our customers in Skipton to some of Yorkshire's foodie gems that we've discovered over the years.," said Ms Robertshaw.

"Sourcing locally is really important to us. Not only are we putting something back into the farming community, we are ensuring our produce is super-fresh, and therefore tasty, and by reducing has cost around £4 million - has seen the total transformation of the former building and the demolition and replacement of next door semi-detached homes.

Suppliers include Carole and Richard Eyton-Jones, of Dark Horse Brewery in Hetton, and milk will be supplied by Grassington-based Dales Dairies, a milk producer, processor and distribution business which runs alongside a working dairy farm.

It will also stock Icelandic Skyr yoghurt - made at Hesper Farm, Bell Busk, using British milk.

Husband and wife farming duo, Sharron and Ed Parker, will stock the shop with the award-winning Yellison goat's cheese and goat's milk from the family's Sire Bank Farm near Bradley, having acquired the award-winning Yellison brand last year.

Meat will be bought from next door Skipton Auction Mart - supplier of the Thornton shop for more than 40 years.

The meat, carefully selected by James Robertshaw at the weekly auction, will be hung, boned, cut and prepared in Keelham's state-of-the-art butchery facilities at the new shop to ensure customers receive the best, freshest cuts of quality meat.

transport costs we can offer exceptional quality at an affordable price."

The Robertshaws originally planned to build an entirely new store on the site of the former Nicholas Smith's garage site close to the Little Chef roundabout on Gargrave Road, but at the end of 2013, changed their plans to use the shell of the original buildings instead.

The project - which
